Summary

Mr. Robert Lawson has over 35 years of financial experience with securities, investments, insurance, and commodities and in a professional capacity as a financial advisor, investment fiduciary, supervisor, securities and options principal, and Chief Compliance Officer of an Investment Advisory firm. He serves as the President of Barrington Financial Consulting Group, Inc., a litigation consulting organization and the President and Chief Compliance Officer of Barrington Capital Management, Inc., a Registered Investment Advisory Firm and Insurance Agency that he established in 1988.

Mr. Lawson proudly serves as a FINRA and NFA Dispute Resolution Chairperson and a FINRA Mediator where he presides over industry and public disputes pertaining to monetary losses, business damages, and employment issues on securities, insurance and futures matters. As an Arbitrator, he renders final and binding decisions after carefully weighing the facts of each case. As a skilled mediator with broad securities experience, Mr. Lawson remains objective and impartial to assist the parties in evaluating their case from multiple perspectives. He promotes a productive and respectful environment to aid in the resolution of their dispute. In addition, he is a Qualified Neutral under Rule 114 of the Minnesota General Rules of Practice in mediation and arbitration.

As a Securities & Insurance Expert Witness and Litigation Support Consultant, Mr. Lawson is retained by both claimants and respondents for FINRA arbitrations, mediations, and court settings. Retaining counsel is supported by extensive research, expert witness reports and testimony, and decades of industry experience. He is an articulate and persuasive speaker with a thorough understanding of FINRA, SEC, and Fiduciary obligations.

Mr. Lawson is dedicated and knowledgeable in the financial services industry with numerous nationally-recognized certifications and has conducted over 500 presentations, classes, and workshops for industry professionals and the investing public.
