

Attachment A

Patrice T. Morin-Resch, BA, CPC, CMCS, CHCI, CPMA

1300 Shamrock Suite 200
972-955-4855 (phone) • 413-480-5227 (fax)

Experience

1985 – Present

MedBooks, Inc.

Dallas, Texas

Owner, Author, Lecturer and Coder of Current Procedural Terminology (CPT®)

- 2014 Qualified as a Certified Professional Medical Auditor (AAPC)
- 2014 Winner of the Presidents Silver Star Award Textbook Excellence Award
- 2013 Winner of the Text and Academic Author's Association's (TAA) Textbook Excellence Award (Texty Award)
- 2013 Inducted into the TAA Council of Fellows.
- 2012 Winner of the Independent Book Publishers Association's Ben Franklin Award for Science.
- 2011 Winner of the TAA McGuffey Award for cp "Teach®" Expert Coding Made Easy! developed in 1989 and updated annually. This "how-to" medical insurance coding book line has been used by more than 900 schools and universities, and is the oldest in the industry
- 2010 Qualified as a Certified Healthcare Coding Instructor (PAHCS)
- 2010 Qualified as a Certified Medical Coding Specialist (PAHCS)
- 2004 Qualified as a Certified Professional Coder (AAPC)
- Trained more than 35,000 people worldwide on how to code using the American Medical Association (AMA) CPT® codebook
- Author and owner of more than 50 copyrights on books related to medical coding
- Supplier of expert testimony for the U.S. Attorney's Office, medical providers, attorneys, and insurance companies
- Provider of medical coding seminars, audits, and in-house consultations for physicians
- Resource for providing information on physician usual and customary fees
- Provider of super-bill and fee slip analysis and review for physicians

1984 – 1986

Chicago, Illinois

AMA Editor of the CPT® Codebook

- Responsible for responding to more than 8,000 written inquiries about CPT in its first year of implementation.
- Responsible for the preface to the Index of CPT® and for working with the editorial committee on selecting new codes and deleting old ones.

Education

1979 – 1983 University of Monterey

Monterey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico

Basic medical sciences – noncredit courses

1974 – 1978 College of St. Elizabeth's

Morristown, New Jersey

Double major BA in Chemistry and Art, minor in Psychology

Professional Offices and Organizations

2014 TAA, Chair of the Annual Convention
2012 to Present TAA Council member
2010 to Present Professional Association of Healthcare Coding Specialists, active member
2008 American Academy of Professional Coders (AAPC), President - Richardson, Texas Chapter
2007 AAPC, Vice-President - Richardson, Texas Chapter
2006 AAPC, President - Richardson, Texas Chapter
2005 to Present American Academy of Professional Coders, active member

Fluent in Spanish. Volunteer Southern Methodist University Catholic Campus Ministry.