
CURRICULUM VITA

Timothy D. Mc Manus, Psy.D, ABPP
Licensed Clinical Psychologist
Board Certified, Rehabilitation Psychology
7156 W. 127th St.
Unit #289
Palos Heights, Il. 60463
708-915-4237 (office) 708-917-0088 (cell)

EDUCATION

January 1987 to February 2, 1993
Psy.D., Clinical Psychology, Illinois School of Professional Psychology, Chicago. Ill. APA approved program in Clinical Psychology. Clinical Research Project: The Contributions of Nonverbal Learning Disabilities to Depression in Adolescents.

August 1976 to September 1977
M.S. Rehabilitation Counseling, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale,
Ill. Thesis: Hyperactivity: A Potential Link to Juvenile Delinquency. 1000 hour Internship within Community Mental Health setting.

August 1969 to June 1973.
B.S. Psychology, Western Illinois University, Macomb, Ill.

CLINICAL TRAINING

Apr. 2004-Dec. 2008. Over 200 CME's during the past five years. Meets Ingalls Hospital and state requirements for MD's within hospital settings.

September 1993 to May 1994

Post-Doctoral Clinical Associate, Institute for Stress Management and Psychotherapy. Neuropsychological assessment. Individual (children, adolescents, and adults), group, marital, and family therapy. Developed inpatient adolescent psychiatric program.

September 1992 to September 1993
Neuropsychology Postdoctoral Fellowship, Rehabilitation Medicine Clinic, Marianjoy Hospital, Wheaton, Ill. 2500 hours. Neuropsychological assessment, individual therapy, and consultation/liaison within the traumatic brain injury, pediatric brain injury, and stroke units.

September 1991 to August 1992
Predoctoral Clinical Internship, Cook County Hospital, Chicago, Ill. APA
Approved. 2400 hours. Rotations included child, adolescent, and adult psychology as well as a minor rotation in neuropsychology.

September 1990 to August 1991
Therapy Practicum, Cook County Hospital, Chicago, Ill. APA approved. 1000 hours. Individual therapy and training within the child and adolescent outpatient, diabetic, hematology, and oncology medical clinics.

July 1988 to July 1989

Diagnostic Practicum, University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill. APA approved. 1000 hours. Psychological, academic, and neuropsychological assessment within the Hyperactive, Attention, and Learning Problems Clinic.

Research: The effects of Theodur on the behavior of asthmatic children.

Research: The impact of IDDM upon right hemispheric processing in diabetic children.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

May 1994 to Present

Clinical Psychologist, Private Practice. Independent Medical Examinations. Neuropsychological and psychological assessment, consultation, individual psychotherapy, and educational services within several acute physical medicine and rehabilitation units, an inpatient substance abuse unit, skilled care in-patient units, a ventilation support unit, and dementia screening clinic. Out-patient individual, marital, and family psychotherapy. Consultation/liaison services to in-patient psychiatric units and acute medical units. Psychological pain assessments, treatment, and consultation to Pain Services. Neuropsychology training instructor to medical residents within two hospitals. Currently serving on Ingalls Hospital Ethics Committee and Cancer Program Development Committee.

May 2005 to Present

Forensic Clinical Psychologist, Health and Law Resources. Review, interpretation, and report of psychological and neuropsychological test data for Workman's compensation Claims and Fitness for Duty Evaluations.

Mar 2003 to Present

Adjunct Professor, Midwestern University. Instructor for Biological Basis of Behavior, Neuropsychological Assessment, and Rehabilitation Psychology.

May 1994 to December 1997

Consultant. Psychological assessment and consultation services to the Department of Children and Family Services. Consultation and supervision within a child abuse prevention center.

May 1994 to December 1997

Clinical Psychologist, Rehabilitation Psychology Associates. Neuropsychological assessment and psychotherapy services within an acute addictions unit. Psychological assessment and consultation services to the Division of Rehabilitation Services.

January, 1995 to December, 1996

Adjunct Professor, Illinois School of Professional Psychology. Instructor for Neuropsychological Assessment, Biological Basis of Behavior, and Psychopharmacology.

July 1988 to September 1991

Psychometrician. Psychological testing administered to clients of the Dept. of Children and Family Service, Intermediate Care Facilities, and Div. of Rehabilitation Services under the supervision of and affiliation with three licensed clinical psychologists.

November 1985 to July 1988

Team Leader, Chicago Lakeshore Hospital, Adolescent Unit. Program development with medical director and lead psychologist. Group, family, and milieu therapy within an adolescent psychiatric hospital.

December 1980 to May 1985

Clinical Coordinator, Hill House, Inc., Carbondale, Ill. Clinical coordinator within a long-term residential substance abuse program for adolescents and adults. Individual, group, and family therapy. Staff and student supervision.

August 1981 to May 1985

Adjunct Professor, Rehabilitation Counseling Program, Southern Illinois University. Instruction and supervision of masters' level counseling students training within substance abuse facilities.

August 1980 to December 1980

Program Coordinator, Perry County Workshop, DuQuoin, Ill. Staff supervision and clinical coordinator.

August 1977 to May 1980

Staff Therapist, Perry County Counseling Center, DuQuoin, Ill. Individual, family, and substance abuse counseling. Satellite office administrator.

April 1974 to August 1976

Social Worker, Illinois Youth Center--St. Charles. Individual counseling and case management services for adolescents within a medium security setting.

RESEARCH AND PRESENTATIONS

Cameron, J. S. and Mc Manus, T.D. (1993). The efficacy of Methylphenidate in the treatment of lightning encephalopathy: A case study. Presentation at Marianjoy Hospital and Clinics, Wheaton, Ill.

McManus, T.D. (2010). The impact of cancer and cancer therapies upon neurocognitive functioning. Continuing Education Presentation, Ingalls Memorial Hospital, Harvey, Illinois.

McManus, T.D. (2010) Concussion assessment and management in Adolescents. Presentation for Athletico Conference, Oakbrook, Il.

McManus, T.D. (2009). Dementia is not just Dementia: A review of DSM-IV remitting, static, and progressive dementing conditions. Presentation, Illinois Psychological Association, Chicago Illinois.

McManus, T.D. (2009). Non-verbal communication patterns in cerebral infarcts. Presentation, Ingalls Hospital, Harvey Il.

McManus, T.D. (2009). Assessment and treatment factors in Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder. Presentation, South Suburban Colloquium, Hazel Crest, Il.

Mc Manus, T.D. (2006). The Bird Flu Meets the Perfect Storm: Ethical, Legal, and Medical Dilemmas of Quarantine. Presentation, Ethics Committee, Ingalls Hospital, Harvey, Il.

Mc Manus, T. D. (2005). Updated treatment approaches to Aphasia. Presentation. Ingalls Hospital, Harvey, Il.

Mc Manus, T. D. (1993). The effects of multiple sclerosis on neuropsychological functioning: Its behavioral manifestations and its implications. Presentation, Sherman Hospital, Elgin, Ill.

Mc Manus, T.D. and Johnson, N.S. (1993). The neuropsychological assessment of children with traumatic brain injury. Presentation, Marianjoy Rehabilitation Hospital and Clinics, Wheaton, Ill.

Mc Manus, T. D. (1992). Treatment of non-compliant, IDDM adolescents: A developmental perspective. Presentation, Cook County Hospital, Chicago, Ill.

Pedelty, L. and Mc Manus, T.D (1997) Non-convulsive epilepsy manifested as isolated auditory hallucinations. Grand Rounds Presentation at Mercy Hospital.

Stein, M. A., Lerner, C., Mc Manus, T.D., and Heller, W. (1989). Theophylline effects on asthmatic children: Parent ratings and parent-child interactions. Poster presented at the Association for the Advancement of Behavior Therapy, Washington, D.C.

ACTIVE LICENSES

Licensed as Clinical Psychologist in both Illinois and Wisconsin

MEMBERSHIPS

American Psychological Association
Division 40 Membership: Neuropsychology
Division 28 Membership: Psychopharmacology and Substance Abuse
Division 22 Membership: Rehabilitation Psychology
Division 48 Membership: Public Policy and Law
Division 18: Public Service
Illinois Psychological Association
Chair, Task Force on Community Relations, 1996-1997.
Chair Elect, Health and Rehabilitation Section, July,
1997 to July, 1999.
American Association of Neuropsychiatry
Give-an-Hour

REFERENCES: Furnished Upon Request

REVISED: October, 2010.